Good Bye, Elaine

Oh, Heavens no!

It can't be true!

Elaine Clark is leaving?

A sad day for our entire crew.

It's been such an honor to work with you,
And though I'm sure that we'll pull through,
It's just not easy to believe
That our beloved leader is about to leave.

How much we'll miss your wisdom and knowledge
That we all can't help but acknowledge,
And your presence and your personality
Combined with your unmatched vitality
Form a fearsome combination
That engenders admiration and motivation.

So wherever you go, remember us
We'll wish you well and readjust
We know you'll be a huge success
But we'll soldier on nonetheless

And when we welcome a new director
We'll work together to support her
And continue the legacy of the work we do
For which we all give thanks to YOU!

Staff Report

August 5, 2025

Staff Changes

- Gwendolyn Gill is the Interim Executive Director. Solano County is working with Napa County to find the best staffing option.
- Current staff of Ashly Cumpas and Kobie Good continue to support the program and the Advisory Council on Aging.

ADRC

Napa ADRC is branded as Connections Napa County. Elaine Clark met with the Core Partners to discuss progress against goals and the need to focus on internal structure and ongoing operations. Elaine also met with Jennifer Yasumoto and discussed the need for a long-term operations plan. The N/S AAA is working on an MOU with Napa County to help support community outreach goals associated with establishing the ADRC.

Solano ADRC evolves. The ADRC continues to evolve. A new case manager is fully trained and assisting clients. Laura Thomas, the primary Information and Assistance contact continues to assist clients. Funding for emergency services has been cut this year due to federal funding cuts so the ADRC will not be able to assist as many clients.

Senior Resource Guides

The 2026 version of the guides are being updated by the service providers. They should be ready for printing in the fall for 2026 distribution. Brown Miller continues to help with this project as the guides need to be ADA Compliant on our website now, searchable even though they are in PDF format.

Master Plan for Aging and Disabilities Solano (MPAD)

The Solano MPAD was printed and is being distributed. A large community meeting will be scheduled for the Fall and will include the next steps to bring the framework to life over the next years.

Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program

We received 550 EBT cards to distribute in both Napa and Solano Counties. 400 cards were given to the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano and 150 cards were given to Community Action Napa Valley to distribute. The cards are distributed at Certified Farmers Markets. Clients can sign up for cards at the markets and use them for fresh produce at the markets.

Providers

Ashley Cumpas has begun visits with each of the service providers to answer questions and learn more about their programs. Ashley will be conducting monitoring visits later this year.

Community Outreach

- AAA postcards were sent to households in both Solano and Napa Counties.
- AAA ads were placed in the Your Town monthly publication in Solano County and the similar publication in Napa County.
- Facebook messages continue to run.
- A front-page article about the Solano MPAD ran in the printed version of the Fairfield Daily Republic newspaper. The article was a result of a press release.
- Ashley and Elaine gave a short presentation about the AAA to a meeting of the CA State Retirees organization. About 100 people attended. We gave out MPADs, Resource Guides, and Solano County Older Adult resource guides.
- Elaine presented the Area Plan Update, new contracts for service providers, and introduced Gwendolyn Gill and Ashley Cumpas to the Napa Commission on Aging at their meeting at Rianda House.

Contracts

- All Area Plan contracts are in place.
- CalFresh Outreach and CalFresh Healthy Living (SNAP-Ed) contracts expire September 30, 2025. The new contracts may be cancelled due to the federal budget. Funds for these programs were not included in the final federal budget. The SNAP-Ed contract includes Line Dance programs, community gardens, and other programs in both Napa and Solano Counties. We are waiting for final guidance from CDA re: possible funding.
