Staff Report

September 2, 2025

Aging Disability Resource Connection (ADRC)

Napa ADRC is branded as Connections Napa County. There was a meeting in mid-August 2025, however Gwendolyn Gill was not able to attend due to being out of the office.

Solano ADRC evolves. The ADRC continues to evolve. The Executive Director Susan Rotchy gave a presentation to the Older & Disabled Adult Services Division, and it was very useful to hear about all the services. The California Department of Aging is conducting a survey about the needs of older adults, people with disabilities, caregivers and communities in rural and underserved areas with a company called MatrixPoint. Survey participants are paid $200.00 for participating for 60-90 minutes in focus groups. They were seeking aged 40+, low income and individuals with disabilities who are under-represented in traditional service networks.

Senior Resource Guides

The 2026 version of the guides are being updated by the service providers. They should be ready for printing in the fall for 2026 distribution. Brown Miller continues to help with this project as the guides need to be ADA Compliant on our website now, searchable even though they are in PDF format.

Master Plan for Aging and Disabilities Solano (MPAD)

Our Health and Social Services Director Emery Cowan is helping coordinate the MPAD kickoff with Supervisor Brown. We do not have a date for the event, but it is still moving forward. We have a possible contractor who will help with the coordination of ongoing MPAD efforts for the next year.

Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program

We received 550 EBT cards to distribute in both Napa and Solano Counties. 400 cards were given to the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano, and 150 cards were given to Community Action Napa Valley to distribute. The cards are distributed at Certified Farmers Markets. Clients can sign up for cards at the markets and use them for fresh produce at the markets. This is still active.

Providers

We will have a Service Provider Orientation event in Solano and Napa on September 3, 2025, and September 4, 2025, respectively. Our main goals include: (1) Meeting our service providers and celebrating their work (2) Introduce NSAAA program and fiscal team members (3) Facilitate a roundtable discussion to hear about our service providers' needs, challenges and answer questions.

Community Outreach

- Ashley Cumpas submitted NSAAA website media for the "Suisun City Scoop" in August. Riitta Anda sent this article to us.
- Facebook messages continue to run.
- Ashley Cumpas attended the Napa Commission on Aging Meeting on August 25, 2025.
- Gwendolyn Gill attended the Vallejo Senior Round Table on August 11, 2025
- Riitta Anda and Gwendolyn Gill met with the City of Vallejo Public Information Officer Robert Briseno and his supervisor Sharon Lund to discuss the ACOA and older adult services in Solano County. Robert is responsible for the Vallejo "Weekly" publication about community updates in Vallejo. This can be an avenue for more media about services to reach Vallejo residents.
- Planning for a Fall Prevention Public Service Announcement in mid-September for Fall Prevention Week September 22-26, 2025.

Contracts and Funding

Ashley Cumpas continues to meet with our service providers to answer questions and learn more about their programs. Ashley has begun conducting monitoring visits for 2025.

Our CalFresh funding has lost nearly $600,000 due to the H.R.1 federal funding resolution.

Solano County Board of Supervisors agenda item - September 23, 2025, for first amendment contract for Meals on Wheels and Community Action Napa Valley for additional funds for home delivered meals and congregate meals.

NSAAA Executive Director Position Update

Currently, Gwendolyn Gill will continue to serve as the Interim Executive Director. We are continuing to discuss the position within our counties.
